WORK EXPERIENCE

J.P. Morgan Chase, Product Operations Analyst – Card, Philadelphia, PA

Summer 2025

- Scaled six JIRA automations across 12 Chase Card Product teams, streamlining workflows with stakeholder pings, blocker escalations, and aging WIP nudges to cut redundant status checks and accelerate resolution of stalled work
- Strengthened quality and reporting visibility by automating Definition-of-Done gatekeeping release and note generation, reducing audit errors, saving my PM ~10% of reporting time, and providing executives weekly progress snapshots
- Partnered with 2 VPs and 1 Managing Director to redesign the Chase app's global navigation via interactive Figma prototype with 3 state-based dashboard variants, 6 micro-nudges, and 10 IF→THEN rules

Georgia Tech Milton Stewart School of ISyE, Undergrad Research Assistant, Atlanta, GA

Summer 2024

- Analyzed MARTA's six-month pilot program data to identify trends and designed a subsidy framework targeting peak demand periods, improving transportation access for 8,000+ riders and prioritizing 1,100+ transportation-disadvantaged individuals
- Proposed a prescheduling feature to streamline operations, optimizing driver schedules and reducing riders' per-stop wait times by 25%, which is projected to decrease annual administrative costs by 20% and improve overall service efficiency
- Presented findings and recommendations to professors and NSF-affiliated stakeholders, potentially influencing strategic decisions

Novak Francella CPA, Audit Intern, Boston, MA

May 2023 – August 2023

- Evaluated controls & identified discrepancies in six labor union audits to reduce senior auditor's manual review by over 50% while preparing detailed working papers and reconciliations to substantiate findings and support audit opinions
- Executed time-sensitive adjustments across pension funds, accurately reporting for ~$50M in assets across over 20 clients, and shadowed partners to document remediation plans, enhancing transparency and strengthening client trust in compliance processes
